

For Immediate Release

Second Sunday Conversations

“This Land is Farmland”

The Village of Warwick, the Warwick Historical Society, the Albert Wisner Public Library and the Warwick Valley Farmers Market will be co-sponsoring “This Land is Farmland”. The event is part of the Village of Warwick’s Sesquicentennial Celebration in 2017. It is a series of informal and entertaining conversations between community members who are passionate about a subject or involved in an activity key to the history and formation of the Village.

“This Land is Farmland” featured guests include Jack and Steve Pennings, Jr. from Pennings Market Orchard and Cidery; John and Dottie Sanford of Maple Terrace Farm; Al Buckbee of Bellvale Farms and Bob Schluter of Warwick Tomatoes and Techni-Growers.

The event is free and will be on Sunday, November 13th from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Old School Baptist Meeting House on High Street, Warwick, NY. For further information please call or visit the following websites – www.whsny.org (845) 986-3236; www.warwick150.org (845) 986-2031; www.albertwisnerlibrary.org (845) 986-1047.